

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Learning is a lifelong process and we are all bestowed with this beautiful life to grow, evolve and Dear students

Experience and exposure are rated as the best teachers, however reflections on our experiences, accomplishments and commitments make us evolve better. And Summer vacation is one such wonderful time to reflect on what you have learnt and accomplished this year.

It is a great time to rejuvenate and re-energise your body and mind. Use this time to explore new interests, read books and engage in activities that nourish you. Travel when required, do engage in sky watching as wonderful natural phenomena are awaiting. Eat right and sleep well.

Learning should be a daily habit and seeking wisdom is an endless pursuit. Colour your mind with right thoughts and actions and discard that are temporarily attractive. Spend time with friends, play more in open spaces and detox yourself digitally.

Do spend some time to read this e-magazine with your parents. Remember, you are a part of the success story.

Happy Holidays

The event, aimed at fostering technological prowess among young minds, proved to be a resounding success, leaving participants and spectators awestruck. Amidst a backdrop of palpable excitement and fervour, the Tech Fest featured a myriad of engaging activities catering to the diverse interests and skillsets of the students.

From coding challenges and robotics competitions to fiery debates on sizzling topics like AI and Ethics, from digital art and poster making contests to video-editing showdowns and thrilling tech quizzes, the event offered something for every tech enthusiast to revel in.

Further, a project proposal contest was held wherein students were provided the opportunity to develop innovative, STEM-based solutions to realworld problems. Not just that, the fest also featured a robotics contest where students manoeuvred their Quarky bots seamlessly to win a football match.

The vigour in the air was pervasive as students huddled around their laptops, brainstorming, typing and designing, fuelled by a shared passion for technology and a drive to stand out from the crowd. To add to the charm and sparkle of the event, the fest featured leading industry experts like Arun Rajeev (the Managing Director of i-Robochakra), S. Mathivathanan (Tech head at NOUS Infosolutions LLP) and Sudhakar D., Associate Professor at the Dept. of Computer Science, Bishop Appasamy College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore who provided invaluable insights, inspiring students to explore new avenues in the field of technology and push the boundaries of their knowledge.

The grand finale of the month-long Tech Fest culminated in a dazzling award ceremony, where the outstanding achievements of the participants were rewarded. From certificates of excellence to coveted mementos. the event served as a testament to the exceptional talent prevalent within the school community. As the curtains are drawn on this phenomenal event, the memories created, and lessons learned will continue to empower the students on their journey towards a future driven by technology and innovation.

City: Coimbatore

Is wrong.
The darkness triumphs over the light,
Is nothing but the truth.
The Dark

Defeats

The Light

The dark always wins over hope.

I believe you have no right to say,
The light always shines in the dark.

A CLOUD

If I were a cloud. I'd wander and roam In my misty home, Along with my friendly crowd, Looking as soft as soapy foam. I would cry and cry With joyful tears In all the years To come; For barley and rye Thrive on them, it appears. I would love to block and cover The harsh light beams emanating from my foe, That are the primeval cause for everyone's woes; And that is why I will hover In the sky and bless all with hail and snow. I also would play and relax with the breezes who blew. After defeating my rival is done, And all the loneliness has begun. But sadly, none of this will come true, Because, I am not one!

A BLITHE SPIRIT IN THE SKY

Full of feathers, soaring so high All over the vast open sky Their gentle songs fill the air Causing happiness and peace everywhere With colours bright and voice so sweet Their songs are always with the beat. It dances and jumps about the clouds To hear its melodies . there are always crowds So here's to the birds . so free and wild Bringing giggles to every child Their beauty and grace, such a great sight Flying all around the world with fearless might.

THE MOON

The moon is like a star, But it is really far, It is always bright, And shines in the night, It is as white as a dove, Everyone watching it with love, As cute as a butterfly, Never saying goodbye !!!

WHERE PENCILS DANCE AND FUTURE BLOOM-POEM

Bells ring, a song her heart hears best,
Doors open wide, a world compressed
In pages turned and lessons sought
Knowledge blooms, a world uncaught
Pencils dance, a whispered tune
Mind alight, beneath the moon,
Chalk dust dreams on blackboard drawn,
Future bright, a rising dawn.

SEED OF HOPE-POEM

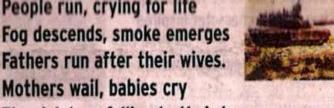

Tiny hands hold sapling green
Eyes to worry, fierce and keen
Melting ice, a warming breeze
Whispers warning through the trees
Cardboard signs and marches bright,
Fighting giants day and night
Seeds she sows, a future planned
Planting hope, for this warm land

Cannons blast, guns fire People run, crying for life Fog descends, smoke emerges Fathers run after their wives.

The rich beg, falling to their knees Begs of mercy haunt the nights

Armies invade fleet by fleet. The rays of dawn sail through the clouds caressing the ones in pain

The war ceases and that moment all is still

That moment peace, peace had claimed.

This moment they lift their heads. With newfound energy Remembering what they were fighting for It was peace, peace that they were fighting for.

GREAT FRIENDS

he generous souls as far as I could remember are my friends. They are so good and kind and show much interest in my growth. They support, encourage and motivate me. They are one among the people who feel happy in all my victories. They are something special. Although they seem to be busy, they always have enough time and full patience to listen to all my stories and jokes. They never lead me in a wrong path nor will I. They have always been a good inspiration for me. We laugh, cry, learn and will shine in the future together. We do mistakes and goodness together and all these will stay in my heart forever.

SHOPPING

went to the shop to buy bread completely forgot and bought these instead! I bought dresses, toys and gifts, But I forgot to take the lift. I was a little sad But then I saw the stairs which made me glad So, I climbed down the staircase At that time, I saw the shopkeeper's face

And I remembered to buy the loaf of bread Which made me run and led Me to the aisle of loaves And then the bread was shoved Into the cart. Later I bought some ice-cream and tart And then when I checked it was all in a pile I don't think I'll go shopping for a while!

DEATH AND LIFE

There really is not much to be distinguished Between the living and the dead, For without death, life will be extinguished, Although death is something full of dread.

Annihilation is depended on by resurrection
And death relies on the living,
As it is solely destruction,
Who creates those who are existing.
The truth is terrible and cruel

It is bore that gives birth to thrill

And death is what makes up life.

who are existing.

The truth is terrible and cruel,
But a beautiful thing to be looked upon,
Consisting of the lively and deathly jewels,
Separated from each other like dusk and dawn.
It is the bad who define goodwill,
Friendship, that creates strife,

VIBGYOR

Colours in the rainbow are seven, Think that it comes from the heaven, It makes everyone happy, Everything else is crappy. Red makes us feel blood, Blue is that of a flood. When there is ups and downs, Just see the rainbow as it crowns. Yellow makes us feel plasma, Our life is like a drama. Green is that of a lush. Do not always rush. Indigo remembers the night sky in the mid evening, Violet is made of blue and red colouring, Orange tempts to eat carrot, Always do not talk like a parrot.

PEACE TO THE MOON

Every night I see you and have a great view Indeed your looks are always new With your looks, you make the world tranquil Adding the sense of appreciation to every individual You always shine along with your friends Whose dazzling glances also has no end The crossing comet makes you look even pretty As you fish the entire beauty of it in a jiffy You make the dark black sky glow That makes everyone give a happy bow The darkness sinks in depth As you're always a dear one with respect

LIGHT OVER DARKNESS

As soon as the sun hits, I hear the cries of stars, As piercing as your looks As you rise as the noon The hungers starts craving

Sweats of the beings hitting the ground As you start shading

I see the moon show

SUNDAY

Sunday!Sunday!Sunday!
Sunday is the best day!
Police has a gun
Morning comes the sun
Sunday is very fun
As you sleep till the noon.
It is the end
Of the week and tensions
Have a book to read
As it is very fun
Between monday and Saturday
It is the only funday
Play till the night
As there is no plight

CARE VS SELFISHNESS

Selfishness is what will let us pursue our aspirations. I do not believe that 'Others must be helped.' Is correct and I feel that 'God helps those who help themselves.' I cannot convince myself to admit that. Need is more empowering than greed. I refuse to concede that. Greed and conceit will lead to everyone's decline. I have no doubt that Over-confidence and arrogance will make us all arise. I definitely do not suppose I am just another distinct, but regular individual. I thoroughly realize What is to be done and what should not be. I am perplexed and bewildered by Why do people take pleasure in serving others? Because I currently understand.

GUIDING MINDS THATSHAPE OUR MINDS!

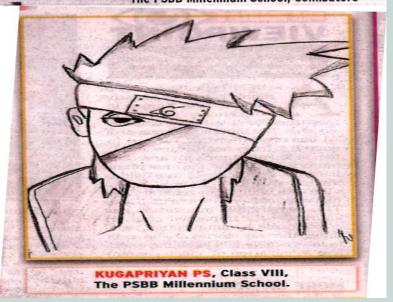

Teacher is a good creature
Having multiple features,
Who works upon our future
Leading our life smoother.
They share stories and open doors
Planting seeds for future chores,
Patiently guiding through each tough test
In their hands, education is best.
She paints our minds
With a heart very kind,
She gives us fun
But wants us to shine like a sun.
In every question, a chance to grow,
A teacher's impact continues to glow!

HAPPINESS

IS IT SOMETHING PERSISTENT OR FLEETING?

fterall it is an emotion we all experience and like every other thing it keeps changing. The reason for happiness may give you happiness now but may not in the future. For example your exams getting postponed will make you happy but it definitely won't make you happy the day before the exams. We always want the things we don't have as we think that it will give us the happiness that we yearn for but the moment we get it, we want something better.

This is the reason we are told to look for happiness in materialistic aspects. The same can be said for only depending upon other people for happiness as they can leave ,disconnect, etc. The only other possible way of being happy is to look for it in yourself. You know what makes you happy better than anyone else will. You can do these activities when you want to and can. Once you get it, share it with others and be the reason they smiled that day. Lending a helping hand whenever needed is a great way to start. Here, the more you share ,the more you get.

A FLUFFY AND CHARMING FAMILY MEMBER!

Pick me up. Pick me up. Cries my puppy In a world of wagging tails, A puppy's joy, a love that sails.

Furry friend with eyes so bright, Chasing dreams in pure delight.

Small teeth as white as milk. Soft hair as soft as silk Soft fur that begs for a gentle touch, Innocence that means so much.

FATHER, WE THANK YOU

Father, we thank you,
Father, we thank you for the protective night,
And for the pleasant morning light.
For all the rest and food and loving care,

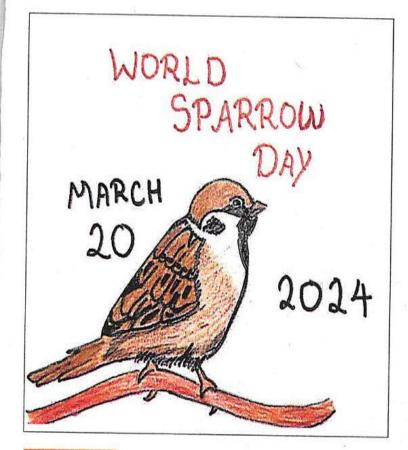

For all the help you do to us sir,

Father, we thank you,

Fit and strong like a soldier in an army, And all that makes us glad and happy.

INDIAN NAVY DAY AND WORLD SOIL DAY

Few children were selected to speak on the topics Indian Navy day and World Soil Day.

The aim of the World Soil Day was to create awareness among the children. The children highlighted the importance of the soil and the ways of maintaining soil fertility. The children were taught steps to protect the soil and prevent soil pollution.

The Children spoke about the significance of the Indian Navy Day and expressed their gratitude towards them for their selfless services. They were made to understand the hardship, challenges and the unparalleled role that the Navy plays in protecting every lives and our nation.

PONGAL CELEBRATION

Pongal, a significant Hindu festival, was joyously celebrated by the students who were donned in their traditional attire for the occasion. The celebration unfolded in the MPH, where students showcased their exuberance through special Pongal dances and songs. The dance performances were a delightful treat for everyone present captivating the audience with their charmend and dance performances, a few children spoke about Bogi, Thai Pongal, Mattu Pongal, and Kanum Pongal. They were engaged in various activities related to Pongal. The day was filled with joy and excitement as the students participated wholeheartedly in these activities, contributing to the festive spirit of the occasion. In addition to the lively celebrations, the teachers played a pivotal role in educating the students about the significance of the Pongal festival. They explained that Pongal is observed as a Thanksgiving ceremony for the year's harvest, symbolizing gratitude for the bountiful crops. This insightful explanation deepened the students' understanding of the cultural and agricultural significance of Pongal.

REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION

On January 23, 2024, the little ones in kindergarten commemorated Republic Day. Capitalizing on the occasion, teachers seized the opportunity to educate the children about national symbols, including the national animal, bird, and flower, using visual aids such as pictures and videos. The students were actively involved in various activities tailored to their respective classes, with Pre-KG engaging thumbprint activities, LKG participating in palm print projects, and UKG immersing themselves in a coloring activity. As the day concluded, each child departed with the enduring image of the fluttering tricolor firmly etched in their minds.

FRUIT SALAD DAY

Kindergarteners joyously celebrated Fruit Salad Day on February 21, 2024, bringing a delightful array of fruits such as kiwi, banana, orange, apple, papaya, pomegranate, and more. This engaging activity served as an effective teaching tool for concepts like many and few, sweet and sour, big and small. Amidst energetic singing of fruit rhymes, the teachers guided the little ones in making and savouring delicious fruit salads in the classroom. This hands-on experience not only introduced the children to diverse fruits but also provided valuable lessons about their texture, taste and health benefits. The day was both enjoyable and educational

NATIONAL SCIENCE DAY

The children of class 1 celebrated National Science Day to promote the importance of Science and its role in our daily lives. The aim was to encourage curiosity and inspire love for Science. A few students spoke about the great inventions of scientists and also highlighted the importance of scientific research. The children enjoyed the activity of matching the inventions with the great inventors also.

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY

International Mother Language Day was celebrated by the students of Class 1 on 19.02.2024 to promote linguistic and cultural diversity and to raise awareness about the importance of preserving and promoting mother languages. A few students were selected to sing songs and narrate stories in their mother languages that included Tamil, Malayalam, Telugu, Kannada, Hindi and even Filipino. This helped the children to understand the importance of preserving and respecting different languages and cultures and to embrace the diversity of languages that make our world a more vibrant place.
